

ROY D. MERRITT FOR U. S. PRESIDENT
CAMPAIGN SPEECH # 3

Of all the States of the U.S. A. that I have lived and worked in during my lifetime, including AK, IN, KY, MN, NH, NM, NY, TX, WV & WY, I would say that all are civilized except New Mexico.

One of my campaign advertisements begins:

"My fellow Americans, I am sorry that we have so many scumbags, lowlifes, ne'er-de-wells, vandals, criminals, and terrorists living in our communities..."

New Mexico, at least southern New Mexico, is not a place where any American citizen should retire to or be forced to live in.

There is no peace period here!

It is a lawless and chaotic society that appears to be run by feudal lords and overlords.

It is a sad place—savage, cruel, demoniacal and inhuman.

There are, of course, some good people here but they are in the minority and are unable to change or improve conditions.

I was told early on by someone after I retired that if I didn't like it here, I should leave.

My short response to this is "Hell, NO!"

This is or should be the U. S. A.!

Individual citizens have rights guaranteed by the U. S. Constitution. These are, unfortunately, being denied to many people now in the State.

People are entitled to have laws enforced in the U. S. A.

Things have got to change in New Mexico from what they are now.

I urge federal authorities to come into the State, especially southern New Mexico, and establish and instill civilization.

If this doesn't happen in the current administration, I predict that it will in the next, regardless of who is, or who becomes, President.

Thank you and may God bless the U. S. A.
